ROVAL™ COLLECTION

ROVAL™ by ASI®

From ASI comes a collection of washroom accessories that is not only elegant, durable and exceptionally functional, but is engineered better than any other product in its class. Actually — the Roval™ Collection has just raised the bar.

Intended for high-profile projects, this collection adds elegance to any washroom without becoming the focal point. Subtle curves, drawn one-piece seamless doors and flush tumbler locks, make the Roval™ Collection ideal for the most aesthetically demanding applications.

Fully removable waste cans, strong hinges, integral locking system, simple installation — form and function meet to make this collection your de facto choice when it comes to writing specs and designing washrooms of the new millennium.

BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTS, MADE BETTER

AMERICAN SPECIALTIES, INC.

Superior design and the most extensive range of products in the industry - hallmarks of our washroom accessories. Since 1961, ASI has provided thousands of products that have satisfied the most discerning designers and given our customers the peace of mind, that no matter what they build, ASI will have products that will stand the test of time.

ASI's team of quality-conscious individuals operate out of several facilities and are supported by representatives strategically located across the globe to serve your needs. Architects, designers, building owners, facility managers and construction professionals have placed their trust in ASI products for some of the most prestigious projects throughout the world for decades.
